The Assured (or in the case of an individual Assured who dies, his personal representative(s)) shall immediately notify the Insurers in Writing on the occurrence of an event referred to in this Clause 12.

unless the Insurers agree in Writing to maintain or reinstate cover in respect of the Insured Vessel, on the same or on varied or restricted terms on the Insurers' discretion.

The Assured shall immediately notify the Insurers in Writing on the occurrence of a circumstance or event referred to in this Clause 13.

- 13.2 Cover in respect of an Insured Vessel shall cease by the Insurers giving to the Assured not less than ten [10] Days' notice in Writing following the first inspection of the Insured Vessel by a surveyor or surveyors appointed on behalf of the Insurers pursuant to Clause 4 above. The Insurers shall be under no obligation to state the grounds for such termination of cover. Should the Insured Vessel, at the expiration of notice of termination of cover given pursuant to this Clause, be at sea or in port and in distress, the Insured Vessel shall, provided notice in Writing be given to the Insurers prior to the expiration of notice of termination of cover given pursuant to this Clause, be held covered until arrival at the next port in safety or, if in port and in distress, until the Insured Vessel is made safe, at a pro-rata per Day premium.
- 13.3 Where cover ceases pursuant to this Clause the Insurers shall be liable only in respect of any claim arising prior to the time from when cover ceased.

14. Premium

In spite of any provision to the contrary, the Assured undertakes that premium will be paid in full to the Insurers within 30 Days of inception of the Policy (or, in respect of instalments premiums, when due).

If the premium due under this contract has not been so paid to the Insurers by the 30th Day from the inception of the Policy (and, in respect of instalment premiums, by the date they are due) the Insurers shall have the right to terminate this contract by notifying the Assured or the broker (where applicable) in Writing. In the event of termination, premium is due to the Insurers on a pro rata basis for the period that the Insurers are on risk but the full contract premium shall be payable to the Insurers in the event of a loss or occurrence prior to the date of termination which gives rise to a valid claim under the Policy.

In the event of the termination of the Policy by the Insurers under this Clause 14, the Insurers shall not be liable in respect of any claims whatsoever, whether arising before or after such termination.

The Insurers shall be entitled to interest at a rate of 2% over LIBOR for any premium or part of the premium which is due and unpaid for the period over which such premium remains due and unpaid.

Where the Assured has paid the premium due under the Policy and:

- 14.1 termination of the Policy takes effect pursuant to Clause 13, premium under the Policy shall be returned to the Assured on a pro rata Day basis or may be otherwise agreed by the Insurers in Writing prior to commencement of the Policy period; and
- 14.2 termination of cover in respect of an Insured Vessel takes effect pursuant to this Clause 14, premium paid in respect of that Insured Vessel shall be returned to the Assured on a percentage of a pro rata per Day basis should the vessel be laid up for a minimum period of thirty [30] consecutive Days and for each completed thirty [30] -Day-period thereafter only if agreed by the insurers in Writing prior to the commencement of the Policy period. For the Insured Vessel to be deemed laid up under the terms of this clause it will need to be:
- 14.2.1 at a safe port or berth approved by the Insurers upon or before lay up;
- 14.2.2 without a crew on board except for security and maintenance; and
- 14.2.3 without cargo on board.

15. Waiver

No representation, act or omission, conduct or forbearance by the Insurers nor any agreement or acquiescence to the conduct of the Assured, shall amount to a waiver of any right of the Insurers under the Policy, nor shall it give rise to an estoppel in respect of any such right unless expressed in Writing and addressed by the Insurers to the Assured.

16. Joint Assureds

Joint Assureds shall not be covered in respect of any claim or liabilities between Joint Assureds. Joint Assureds shall:

- 16.2 be bound by the default of any one of the Joint Assureds in failing to disclose or misrepresenting material information to the Insurers;
- 16.3 be bound by the conduct of any one of the Joint Assureds which would give rise to:
 - 16.3.1 the termination of the Policy;
 - 16.3.2 the termination of cover in respect of an Insured Vessel;
 - 16.3.3 the termination by the Insurers of cover provided under the Policy; or
 - 16.3.4 the variation or restriction by the Insurers of the terms on which cover under the Policy is provided;
- 16.4 be deemed to have received any notice or communication sent by the Insurers to any one of the Joint Assureds; and
- 16.5 be deemed to have sent any notice or communication sent by any one of the Joint Assureds to the Insurers.

The deductibles and limits provided for in the Policy shall apply to any claim by any one of the Joint Assureds, as if the Joint Assureds were a single Assured. Receipt by any Joint Assured of any sum payable by the Insurers shall be deemed to be receipt on behalf of all the Joint Assureds and shall discharge the Insurers of their liability for any claim in respect of which such payment is made.

The cover provided under contracts of insurance evidenced by the Policy in respect of every Insured Vessel(s) and every Assured, shall be deemed to be provided under a single Policy, and not under separate individual contracts of insurance comprised in a composite Policy.

18. Claims Notification and Provision of Information

It is a condition precedent to the liability of the Insurers under the Policy that the Assured shall:

- 18.1 notify the Insurers immediately and also in Writing as soon as reasonably practicable of any event which may give rise to a claim under the Policy and in any event no later than twelve [12] months after the date of such event;
- 18.2 notify the Insurers in Writing forthwith of any legal or other proceedings brought against the Assured or in respect of the Insured Vessel;
- 18.3 provide to the Insurers or to any party nominated by the Insurers as soon as reasonably practicable all material, including documents, photographs or reports in the possession of the Assured or its agents and any information known to the Assured or its agents, relating to any event which may give rise to a claim under the Policy and continue to keep the Insurers advised of all material developments in respect of such an event or claim;
- 18.4 notify the Insurers as soon as practicable of any opportunity to obtain information, relating to an event which may give rise to a claim under the Policy, including but not limited to an opportunity to conduct medical examinations or surveys in respect of any cargo, ship or any other object;

- 18.6 not make any admission of liability, responsibility or blame to any third party in respect of any event which may give rise to a claim under the Policy, unless agreed by the Insurers in Writing.

19. Claims Handling

The Insurers shall be entitled on such terms as they may require to assume control of the conduct of any claim, legal proceedings, arbitration or participation by the Assured in any inquiry or investigation, in respect of any event or matter which may give rise to a claim under the Policy.

The Insurers may direct the Assured to take any step in connection with the conduct of such a claim, legal proceedings, arbitration, inquiry or investigation, including the conclusion of a settlement or compromise agreement.

In the event of a failure by the Assured to act as directed by the Insurers, any claim under the Policy shall be limited to the amount of the claim which would have been recoverable had the Assured acted as directed by the Insurers.

Where the Assured requests the appointment of an average adjuster such request will be put to the Insurer who will recommend which adjuster should be appointed. The average adjuster's fees as are reasonable and agreed by the Insurer shall be paid by the Insurer but only to the extent of the proportion insured hereunder. Should the Assured decline to accept the Insurer's recommendation, then the fees of the adjuster appointed by the Assured will be borne by the Assured to the extent that they would otherwise be paid by the Insurer under the Policy.

20. Assistance in Handling Claims

The Insurers may, subject to the terms of the Policy, appoint on behalf of the Assured any person to assist in or advise on the conduct of any investigation, claim or legal or other proceedings, in respect of any event that may give rise to a claim under the Policy.

Any person so appointed, or appointed by the Assured with the Insurers' consent, will act for and on the instructions of the Assured as principal, but shall, without reference to the Assured, disclose all material, documents or information relating to such investigation, claim or legal or other proceedings to the Insurers, as if the Insurers were his principals.

In the event that there is a requirement to instruct a lawyer to protect the Assured's interests and those of the Insurer, the instruction must be referred to the Insurer for approval in Writing prior to being made.

21. Provision of Security

The Insurers are under no obligation, but may, provided all sums due to the Insurers from the Assured are paid and otherwise on such terms as they shall agree, provide security in respect of any claim against the Assured by any party in respect of the risks covered by the Policy. The Assured shall indemnify the Insurers for the costs of, or liability incurred to any third party under the security so provided, save to the extent that such costs or liability are recoverable under the Policy.

22. Recoveries and Subrogation

Where the Insurers have made a payment to or on behalf of the Assured in respect of a claim under the Policy, and the Assured, or any person on the Assured's behalf, obtains the recovery or reimbursement or any sum representing all or part of the liability, loss, cost or expense which was the subject of the claim so paid, such sum shall be applied in favour of the Insurers and the Assured in the proportions of their respective contributions to such payment.

The Insurers shall be subrogated to all rights which the Assured may have against any third party in respect of any payment made under the Policy, to the extent of such payment, and the Assured shall, at the request of the Insurers, execute forthwith any document required by the Insurers for the purpose of the exercising of such rights.

23. Limitation of Liability

Cover under the Policy for a liability incurred by the Assured or in respect of the Insured Vessel shall be limited to such liability as may be established under the applicable law, or as may be agreed to in Writing by the Insurers, and shall be limited in particular by reference to any legal provision under the applicable law providing for the limitation of liability in respect of the Insured Vessel or the Assured.

24. Basis of Contract

Any reference to 'basis of the contract' in this Insurance is of no effect.

25. Duty of Fair Presentation

The Assured must make a fair presentation of the risk (as set out in the Insurance Act 2015 or successor or amending legislation) in proposing for, or proposing to vary, this Insurance.

26. Duty of Fair Presentation – Remedies for Breach – Proposing for this Insurance

If the Assured or anyone acting on its behalf breaches the Assured's duty of fair presentation then the Insurers' remedies shall be as follows:

- 26.1 if such breach is deliberate or reckless, the Assured may:
 - 26.1.1 treat the Policy as having been terminated from its inception; and
 - 26.1.2 retain the premium;
- 26.2 if such breach is not deliberate or reckless and the Insurers would not have entered into the Policy but for the breach, the Insurers may by notice to the Assured treat the Policy as having been terminated from its inception in which case the Insurers shall return premium; and
- 26.3 in all other cases if, but for the said breach, the Insurers would have entered into the Policy but:
 - 26.3.1 on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the Insurers may require that the Policy is treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset; or
 - 26.3.2 would have charged a higher premium, the Insurers may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims). In those circumstances, the Insurers shall pay only X% of what it would have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged} / \text{higher premium}) \times 100$.

27. Duty of Fair Presentation – Remedies for Breach - Variation

If the Assured or anyone acting on its behalf breaches the Assured's duty of fair presentation in relation to a variation of the Policy, the Insurers' remedies shall be as follows:

- 27.1 If such breach is deliberate or reckless, the Insurers may:
 - 27.1.1 by notice to the Assured treat the Policy as having been terminated from the time when the variation was concluded; and
 - 27.1.2 retain the premium;
- 27.2 if such breach is not deliberate or reckless, and the Insurers would not have entered into the variation but for the breach, the Insurers may treat the Policy as if the variation was never made, in which case the Insurers shall return any additional premium relating to the variation; and
- 27.3 in all other case if, but for the said breach, the Insurers would have entered into the variation but:
 - 27.3.1 on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the Insurers may require that the variation is treated as if it had been entered into on those difference terms;
 - 27.3.2 would have increased the premium by more than it did or at all, the Insurers may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Insurers shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged} / \text{higher premium}) \times 100$; or

- 27.3.3 would not have reduced the premium by as much as it did or at all, the Insurers may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Insurers shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/reduced total premium}) \times 100$.

28. Late Payment of Claims

The Insurers shall, pursuant to section 13A of the Insurance Act 2015, pay any sum due in respect of a valid claim within a reasonable time (which includes a reasonable time to investigate and assess the claim).

29. Disputes

- 29.1 The Assured hereby submits to the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice of England in respect of any action brought by the Insurers to recover sums which the Insurers may consider to be due to them from the Assured. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Insurers shall be entitled to commence and maintain in any jurisdiction any action to recover sums which the Insurers may consider to be due to them from the Assured.
- 29.2 Any other dispute or difference arising between the Insurers and the Assured under the Policy shall in the first instance be referred to a panel of three mediators, or a single mediator if the Insurers and Assured so agree in Writing. Any mediator must be a commercial person. The mediation procedure shall operate as follows:
- 29.2.1 the Insurers or the Assured shall notify the other in Writing of their intention to submit a difference or dispute to mediation, and of the mediator appointed on their behalf;
- 29.2.2 within fourteen [14] Days of such notification, the party so notified shall appoint a mediator and notify the other party in Writing;
- 29.2.3 the two mediators shall, within fourteen [14] Days of the appointment of the second mediator, select a third mediator who shall act as chairman of the mediation panel; and
- 29.2.4 the single mediator or the mediation panel through the chairman will, within fourteen [14] Days of the appointment of the sole mediator or the constitution of the mediation panel, notify the parties of a timetable for the following:
- 29.2.4.1 a first meeting of the mediation panel if required;
- 29.2.4.2 service of principal written submissions by each party;
- 29.2.4.3 service of written submissions in response by each party;
- 29.2.4.4 service of any further submissions the mediator or mediation panel may invite either party to make;
- 29.2.4.5 a date of discussion of the submissions by the mediation panel; and
- 29.2.4.6 a date for the attendance of the parties (together or separately) before the mediator or mediation panel.

The mediator or mediation panel shall be entitled to levy reasonable charges for acting and shall notify the parties of an estimate of those charges at the same time as notification of the timetable for the conduct of the mediation process is given.

The mediator or mediation panel shall have the power to regulate the conduct of the mediation and the parties agree to make available all documents, information or materials (subject to the operation of legal privilege), as the mediator or mediation panel may require.

The costs of the mediation shall be borne equally by Insurers and the Assured.

- 29.3 If at any time either party fails to comply with the provisions in this Clause 29 in relation to the mediation process, or gives notice to the other that it will no longer participate in the mediation process, such difference or dispute shall be referred to the arbitration in London of two Arbitrators (one to be appointed by the Insurers and the other by the Assured) and an Umpire to be appointed by the Arbitrators, and the submission to arbitration and all the proceedings therein shall be subject to the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996, and any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.

30. Governing Law

The Policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

31. Third Parties

The Policy does not confer or create any right enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or any amending or subsequent legislation by any person who is not named as the Assured and both the Insurers and the Assured may amend, cancel, or lapse this Insurance without giving notice to, or requiring the consent of, any other third party. However, this will not preclude rights enforceable under the Third Parties (Rights against Insurers) Act 2010.

This exclusion will be valid notwithstanding any term of the Policy which purports to confer a right or benefit on any such person.

32. Cyber Attack Exclusion

- 32.1 Subject only to Clause 32.2 below, in no case shall this insurance cover loss damage liability or expense directly or indirectly caused by or contributed to by or arising from the use or operation, as a means for inflicting harm, of any computer, computer system, computer software programme, malicious code, computer virus or process or any other electronic system.
- 32.2 Where this Clause 32 is endorsed on policies covering risks of war, civil war, revolution, rebellion, insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or any hostile act by or against a belligerent power, or terrorism or any person acting from a political motive, Clause 32.1 shall not operate to exclude losses (which would otherwise be covered) arising from the use of any computer, computer system, computer software programme or any other electronic system in the launch and/or guidance system and/or firing mechanism of any weapon or missile.

33. Sanctions Limitation and Exclusion

There shall be no cover under the Policy and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer or any member of the Insurer's group to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of any country.

There shall be no entitlement under any circumstances for the Assured to recover under the Policy that part of any liability, cost or expense which is not recovered or recoverable by the Insurer from any reinsurer because of a shortfall in recovery or non-recovery from such reinsurer by reason of any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of any country.

The terms 'shortfall' or 'non-recovery' include, but are not limited to, any failure or delay in payment to the Insurer by such reinsurer, and/or payment to an account other than an account of, or for the benefit of, the Insurer, in compliance with a requirement imposed by any recognised authority of competent jurisdiction to enforce any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of any country.
